

Business Connection presents ...

EMPLOYER ROUNDTABLE

Event details: Alaska's Department of Labor and Workforce Development and Department of Corrections invite employer participation in a discussion about services available to support the incorporation of justice-involved people into the Alaska labor market. Learn about training programs available during incarceration, navigating the parole and probation process with employees, and incentives available to employers.

Purpose: Focus on educating employers, specifically construction industries employers, about training available to justice-involved individuals while incarcerated and incentives associated with hiring reentrants.
